

CHIEF WATER POLO COACH

Chris Martin

The chief coach (Water Polo) leads the coaching of the water polo discipline at all levels from the youngest members of the division (10+) to the adult/senior players. The role includes working to recruit members, organising training sessions and matches. The chief water polo coach is also responsible for forward planning the development of the water polo discipline within CASC and for overseeing the development and training opportunities of the water polo coaches.

All those interested in joining CASC Water Polo should contact Chris Martin.
